Custom Iron Man Suit by Micah Alein Moon

Librarian: Joanna McCauliff School: Jack Norton Elementary, Hoopa, CA

Micah created his very own Iron Man Suit! This creative fourth grader spent hours upon hours (maybe MORE) finding seventeen large tin cans, cutting them open, drilling holes into them, and then using zip-ties to fashion them together. A HUGE Iron Man fan, he clad himself in metal to take home first prize in our Iron Man Visits Your Library Contest.

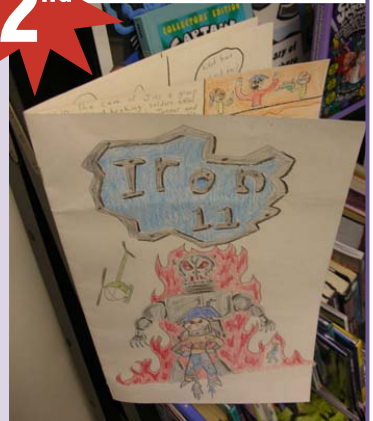

Way to go Micah!

Iron 11 Comic Book by Jacob Chapman

Librarian: Kristi Lee School: Burris Elementary, Mitchell, IN

Jacob produced an extremely intricate comic book titled Iron 11. This completely unique 8-page graphic novel details the extraordinary adventure of a superhero aptly named Iron 11. Iron 11's escapade includes battling the evil Iron 50, escaping from prison, and defeating the sinister Moshia Group. This third-grader clearly has the imagination and art skills of a young Stan Lee. Awesome work Jacob!

Cheese Man Story & Illustration by Julia Elrod, Diana Kalyn, and Fayza Rahman

Librarian: Susan Egan School: Prospect Elementary, Oberlin, OH

Julia, Diana, and Fayza put together a hilarious entry about an unlikely superhero: Cheese Man! This entry included a great illustration, a description of Cheese Man's powers, and a highly-imaginative 8-page short story. Living secretly as Jack Pepper in New York City, Cheese Man does battle with the diabolical Melty-Woman and saves the city from certain peril.

Outstanding effort Julia, Diana, and Fayza!
